APFTA Monthly Internal Update

Friday April 11, 2025

Issue #29

I am optimistic. Spring is in the air. We are ready for another great year of art and creativity.

---

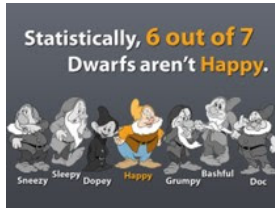

The card inventory process is now underway. APFTA has purchased existing cards from the artists. The gallery hosts will start using the inventory check sheet which is in front in the daily inventory binder (red) to identify which artist card you have sold. You will see a new item in the Square named CARDS this is what you will use when a card is purchased and charge $5.00 per card. You will not have to attribute this sale to any artist (no notes needed). If you have questions please text Debbie at 905-973-0304. Thank you Val, who has been sending each gallery host a reminder of this process so please take note. (Also remember that Heather Lawrie's cards are originals and are priced separately.)

GALLERY STATISTICS

Sales and visits are down from last year and this is to be expected considering the economic time we are in. We must look forward to the summer with cottagers and visitors coming to our community. Wishing the best to all our great artists to have a successful summer!

ANSWER TO THE QUESTION OF THE MONTH

Do we need an envelope for every day now that we have the square?

NO we don't! Since the square does most of the work for us now, just use one envelope per week to put the sales slips in. Debbie will start the week every Thursday. Also remember that a cash sale goes into the envelope as well.

Congratulations go to Erica Tripp for being voted the People's Choice Award this installation. The Winner of the Draw is Heather Hiltz who will receive a $20.00 Gift Card.
