APFTA Monthly Internal Update

Friday April 11, 2025

Issue #29

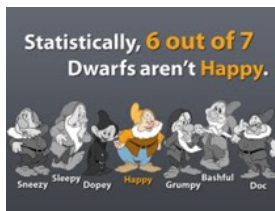

Our members have been invited to a pancake breakfast fly in at the Bancroft Flying Club to display your artwork. The event is from 9-4 on July 13th at the Bancroft Airport. If you are interested in having a pop up booth to sell your art then please call Stephanie Johnston at 613-301-5500.

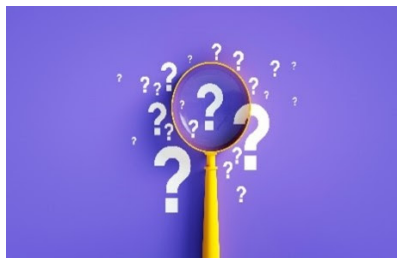

The art changeover is coming on May 26th. The deadline to get your new artwork (including label information) in to the curator is 4 pm Sunday May 25th.

GALLERY STATISTICS

Things are picking up somewhat if only the weather (sans blackflies) would co-operate to get those cottagers back up here.

ANSWER TO THE QUESTION OF THE MONTH

Do we have enough members to make APFTA thrive another year?

Yes we do! New member applications are in and we will be reviewing these new application in our June Executive Meeting. We must thank Ken Balmer for reviewing these and giving us recommendations.

Artists of all levels are invited to contribute to the overlay-collage of the existing mural at the side of our building!

Scenes will be celebrating local pre-colonial history, habitats, wildlife, and scenic sites, reflecting our diverse community.

Art supplies are provided.

WHEN & WHERE

- MARCH - sign up in our Annex Gallery
- JULY & AUGUST - mural creation in our Annex

For more info, contact Gayle Crosmaz at wisdomdrumsinternational@gmail.com.

We will be cleaning the attic storage space in the coming months. There is an abundance of packing materials, boxes, bags etc that we will throw out. If any of it is yours or you can use it please take it now. Thanks.

Carol Giles is moving to New Zealand and has a pop up gazebo she is selling at rock bottom price. Please contact her at gilescarol16@gmail.com if interested.

KEEP IN THE LOOP

The next executive meeting will be Tuesday, June 10th at 3:30 pm. Unfortunately there will be no zoom available for this meeting.

Email debbie@debbiechristie.ca if you would like to be on the mailing list to attend.
